

IRAQ VETERANS AGAINST THE WAR

Resisting Empire in Iraq:

Veterans Present The Case
For Immediate Withdrawal

A majority of Americans think the war in Iraq was a mistake, yet many argue, “we can’t just leave.” For some, it is about preventing chaos, for others, caring for the well being of Iraqis.

However, Iraq Veterans Against the War (IVAW) firmly believes the best way to help the Iraqi people, the best way to “support our troops”, and the only practical solution to the violence in Iraq, is to remove ALL combat forces and private contractors from Iraq, give veterans the care they need and deserve when they get back and pay reparations to the Iraqi people.

Join Iraq and Afghanistan Veterans from Rochester, Syracuse, and Ft. Drum
for a presentation and open discussion.

A special invitation is extended to all active duty, veterans of Iraq, Afghanistan, Vietnam, and previous US wars as well as their family and friends

Saturday, Dec. 15th 1:00pm

At the Antiwar Storefront, 658 Monroe Avenue, adjacent to Aaron's Alley, Archimage, near Oxford Street

For more information on IVAW visit: www.IVAW.org

For more information on this event: www.RochesterAgainstWar.org
ivaw@RochesterAgainstWar.org

IRAQ VETERANS AGAINST THE WAR

Resisting Empire in Iraq:

Veterans Present The Case
For Immediate Withdrawal

A majority of Americans think the war in Iraq was a mistake, yet many argue, “we can’t just leave.” For some, it is about preventing chaos, for others, caring for the well being of Iraqis.

However, Iraq Veterans Against the War (IVAW) firmly believes the best way to help the Iraqi people, the best way to “support our troops”, and the only practical solution to the violence in Iraq, is to remove ALL combat forces and private contractors from Iraq, give veterans the care they need and deserve when they get back and pay reparations to the Iraqi people.

Join Iraq and Afghanistan Veterans from Rochester, Syracuse, and Ft. Drum
for a presentation and open discussion.

A special invitation is extended to all active duty, veterans
of Iraq, Afghanistan, Vietnam, and previous US wars as
well as their family and friends

Saturday, Dec. 15th 1:00pm

At the Antiwar Storefront, 658 Monroe Avenue, adjacent
to Aaron's Alley, Archimage, near Oxford Street

For more information on IVAW visit: www.IVAW.org

For more information on this event: www.RochesterAgainstWar.org
ivaw@RochesterAgainstWar.org

