

Soldiers AND Civilians

SPEAK!! OUT!!

Wednesday, Mar. 19th, 2008
Rally at 4:30pm at the Liberty Pole march to IRS bldg. to highlight the "cost of war" following the rally

- Reparations to the Iraqi people
- Full health benefits for returning veterans
- Money for healthcare AND education -not occupation.

"Bring the Troops Home Now"

Iraq Veterans Against the War - calls all soldiers!

The Rochester anti-war movement calls all civilians!

Part of the "5 Years too Many" national day of action marking the 5th anniversary of the Iraq War

Co-Sponsors of this action include: Iraq Veterans Against the War, Rochester Against War, MoveOn.org / Progressives in Action, The Antiwar Storefront, Peace Action and Education Task Force of Metro Justice, International Socialist Organization, Campus Antiwar Network (CAN), Declaration of Peace Affinity Group, Food Not Bombs, Rochester Indy Media, Military Families Speak Out (MFSO), House of Mercy, 1199 SEIU United Healthcare Workers East, The Public Policy Committee of the Episcopal Diocese of Rochester, Brockport Amnesty International Group #191, Veterans for Peace. --an up-to-date list available online at website listed below

Part of a whole day of actions:

-- 3:30 pm Drumming Circle at the Liberty Pole

-- 4:30 pm during the rally, Street Theater performances, join in!

-- 5:30 pm - 7:00pm Vigil for Peace, at the First Unitarian Church, 220 S. Winton Road

-- 7:00 am - 7:00 pm "How Do You Feel About 5 Years of War?"
art installation at the Antiwar Storefront, 658 Monroe Ave, hospitality provided all day

-- 7:00 pm "Concert for Peace" also the First Unitarian Church

To find out more info or to co-sponsor this event, visit the Antiwar Storefront 658 Monroe Avenue <http://www.RochesterAgainstWar.org> for a complete list of co-sponsors and up-to-date info
contact 585-208-2772 or EVENTS@RochesterAgainstWar.org